IMPORTANT NOTES:

- Feel free to read directly from the script during your self-tape. There is no need to memorize the lines at this point. We are more concerned with delivery right now.
- This is a touring musical. You MUST have strong singing skills to be considered for a role in this production. To hear the songs from the musical, go to www.princessdianathemusical.com and listen to the original soundtrack.
- You MUST also include a separate self-tape of you singing a song a cappella. It can be any song, it doesn't need to be a song from this production.

LINES FOR THE ROLE OF CAMILLA ONLY.
DO NOT USE THESE SIDES IF YOU ARE AUDITIONING FOR THE ROLE OF THE QUEEN, CHARLES OR PHILIP

OPENING SCENE:

30th birthday gala for Prince Charles. His parents (the Queen and Prince Philip) are pressuring him to find a bride because he is 30 years old and he needs to 'produce' an heir to the throne. He invites many young ladies, including a 17 year old Lady Diana Spencer, the sister of someone he dated. Camilla is his married, former girlfriend, and Charles is still in love with her.

(Charles walks over to his mother.)

CHARLES: Having fun, Mummy?

THE QUEEN: Yes, of course. Happy birthday, Charles. (He kisses her on her cheek.) You do know that this party is an opportunity for you. I see many eligible young ladies here, no doubt desperate to speak with you.

CHARLES: There's plenty of time.

THE QUEEN: You're thirty years old. You have a duty to your country, Charles. (PRINCE PHILIP walks over.)

PRINCE PHILIP: Time to grow up, my boy. You're the future King. You can't play the bachelor boy any longer. Only you can provide this family with an heir to the throne. You've got your pick of blue-blooded virgins nipping at your heels!

CHARLES: Yes, Sir. I know, Sir. We have been over this many times. Can't I just enjoy my party? I promised Camilla I'd dance with her.

PRINCE PHILIP: We have rules, Charles. You know what they are.

CHARLES: Yes, Sir. (Charles sees Camilla and goes over to her.)

CHARLES: You look stunning. I wish I could just grab you!

CAMILLA: Isn't this party supposed to be some kind of a wife market? You know I'm not on that menu. (she waggles her wedding ring)

CHARLES: How on earth did I let you get away? Biggest mistake of my life.

CAMILLA: Oh, darling, you were off with the Navy, being a brave soldier, serving our country. I couldn't wait forever.

CHARLES: You broke my heart.

CAMILLA: You're such a flatterer. We can still be good friends, even if you're married.

CHARLES: I know. But I will always wish that things could have somehow been different.

CAMILLA: Well, you seem to be moving on. The Queen is pushing you to find a bride?

CHARLES: Incessantly. Now that I am thirty, that seems to be all they speak about.

CAMILLA: Maybe I can help. (Grabs his hand.) I'll call you. (She gives him a look and walks away.)
